UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

SALVADOR NOYOLA-MUNIZ

AGREEMENT FOR PRETRIAL DIVERSION

It is reported that you, Salvador Noyola-Muniz, have committed offenses against the United States, that is, 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(5)(A).

Upon accepting responsibility for your behavior, and by your signature on this Agreement, it appears, after an investigation of the offenses and your background, that the interest of the United States, your own interest, and the interest of justice will be served by the following procedure:

Therefore, on the authority of the Attorney General of the United States, by G. Norman Acker, III, Acting United States Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina, prosecution in the district of this offense shall be deferred for the period of eighteen (18) months from this date, provided you abide by the following conditions and the requirements of the Agreement set out below.

Should you violate the conditions of this Agreement, the United States Attorney may revoke or modify any condition(s) of the Pretrial Diversion Program or change the period of supervision which shall in no case exceed eighteen (18) months. The United States Attorney may release you from supervision at any time. The United States Attorney may, at any time within the period of your supervision, initiate prosecution for the offense should you violate the conditions of the Agreement. In this case, the United States Attorney may furnish you with notice specifying the condition(s) of the Agreement which you have violated.

After successfully completing your program and fulfilling all the terms and conditions of the Agreement, no prosecution for the above-mentioned offense(s) will be resumed in this district, and the United States Attorney will move to dismiss the Complaint in File No. 5:21-mj-1395-JG.

Any statements made by you to the United States Probation Office in connection with this Agreement will not be admissible on the issue of guilt in any subsequent proceeding.

General Conditions of Pretrial Diversion Program

1. You shall not violate any law (federal, state, and local). You shall immediately contact your pretrial diversion supervisor if arrested and/or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
2. You shall attend school or work regularly at a lawful occupation or otherwise comply with the terms of the special program described below. If you lose your job or are unable to attend school, you shall notify your pretrial diversion supervisor at once. You shall consult your pretrial diversion supervisor prior to job or school changes.
3. You shall report to your pretrial diversion supervisor as directed and keep your pretrial diversion supervisor informed of your whereabouts.
4. You shall continue to live in this judicial district. If you intend to move out of the district, you shall inform your pretrial diversion supervisor so that the appropriate transfer of program responsibility can be made.
5. You shall consent to a warrantless search by a United States Probation Officer or, at the request of pretrial diversion supervisor, any other law enforcement officer, of your person and premises, including any vehicle to determine compliance with the conditions of this agreement.
6. You shall provide the Probation Office with access to any requested financial information.
7. You shall follow the program and such special conditions as may be described below.

Special Conditions

Description of special program:

1. Whenever called upon to do so by the United States, (1) to disclose fully and truthfully in interviews with Government agents information concerning all conduct related to the offense(s) set out in this Agreement and any other crimes of which you have knowledge, and (2) to testify fully and truthfully in any proceeding. These obligations are continuing ones. You agree that all of these statements can be used against you at trial if you withdraw from this Agreement or violate the conditions of this Agreement.

2. If you provide false, incomplete, or misleading information or testimony, this will constitute a breach of this Agreement by you, and you shall be subject to prosecution for any federal criminal violation. Any information provided by you may be used against you in such prosecution.
3. You will submit to testing for a prohibited substance if required by the probation office or supervising officer. Testing may be used with random frequency and may include urine testing, the wearing of a sweat patch, and/or any form of prohibited substance screening or testing. You will not obstruct, attempt to obstruct, or tamper with the efficiency and accuracy of prohibited substance screening or testing.
4. You shall participate as directed in a program approved by the probation office for the treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency, or alcohol dependency which will include urinalysis testing or other drug detection measures and may require residence or participation in a residential treatment facility.
5. You will submit to the supervision of the United States Probation Office for the Eastern District of North Carolina as directed.
6. You shall remain upon the above conditions of pretrial diversion for a period of eighteen (18) months from the date of execution of this agreement.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

I, Salvador Noyola-Muniz, assert and certify:

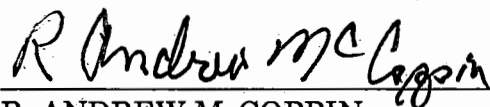

I am aware of the fact that the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States provides that in all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial. I am also aware that Rule 48(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure provides that the court may dismiss an indictment, information, or complaint for unnecessary delay in presenting a charge to the Grand Jury, filing an information, or in bringing a defendant to trial. I hereby request the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina to defer such prosecution. I agree and consent that any delay from the date of this Agreement to the date of initiation of prosecution, as provided for in the terms expressed herein, shall be deemed to be a necessary delay at my request, and I waive any defenses to such prosecution on the grounds that such delay operated to deny my rights under Rule 48(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States to a speedy trial or to bar the prosecution by reason of the running of the statute of limitations for a period of months equal to the period of this Agreement.

I hereby state that I have read the above, and it has been explained to me. I understand the conditions of my Pretrial Diversion Program and agree that I will comply with them.

I further understand that in connection with the anticipated pending charge against me, the court must approve this agreement and my participation in the Pretrial Diversion Program.
